Newsletter

for parents bereaved of an only child or all their children

Winter 2022

Dear Parents

We are sorry that there is no Newsletter for parents who are bereaved of their only child or all their children to send to you this quarter. Sadly our editor for the Winter 2022 Newsletter was unable to produce the publication this time.

If you would be interested in taking on the role of Newsletter editor, being part of an editorial team, or perhaps 'guest' edit a one-off edition please do get in touch. Your newsletter is always edited by bereaved parents who have lost their only child or all their children and aims to gather and share information about parental bereavement and grief, reduce isolation and offer mutual support. Reading about the experiences of others can help us know we're not alone.

Please do contact us at info@tcf.org.uk if you would like to volunteer as editor, co-editor or a guest editor or even just explore being involved. Thank you.
